

1. M. K Jessup. The Case for the UFO. New York: The Citadel Press, 1955. First edition. 239pp. Octavo [21.5 cm] Light blue paper covered boards. Lightly rubbed at the spine ends and corners of the covers. In a price-clipped dust jacket, with short closed tears and chips here and there along the edges. The edges are also a bit rubbed and creased. Ex-libris UFO enthusiast George W. Earley, with his bookplate on the front pastedown. Early was a U.S. engineer and editor. He was involved in science fiction fandom during the 1940s. He is the author of "Encounters with Aliens: UFOs and Alien Beings in Science Fiction." Very good in a very good dust jacket. $75

From the jacket- "The scope of these events and phenomena is so great that heretofore they have been explained only in terms of supernatural agencies. By bringing them into space flight categories and organizing and correlating them, Mr. Jessop, a noted astronomer, archeologist and explorer, shows that a common denominator exists among them."

2. M. K. Jessup. The Expanding Case for the UFO. New York: The Citadel Press, 1957. First edition. 253pp. Octavo [21.5 cm] 1/4 light blue paper with dark blue paper over boards. Publisher's blue topstain. The top edges of the covers are a hair dulled, and the spine ends are gently bruised and rubbed. The endpapers are slightly darkened and foxed. In an attractive dust jacket, with very occasional chips and small closed tears to the edges. Publisher's advert for an upcoming title tucked in at the rear. Very good in a very good dust jacket. $250

The author, M. K. Jessup was an explorer and instructor in Astronomy and Mathematics at the University of Michigan and Drake University. During his career, he erected and operated the largest telescope in the Southern Hemisphere in South Africa for the University of Michigan.

Warmly inscribed by the editor to fellow UFO enthusiast George W. Earley on the front free endpaper. Earley's bookplate is on the front pastedown. Early was a U.S. engineer and editor. He was involved in science fiction fandom during the 1940s. He is the author of "Encounters with Aliens: UFOs and Alien Beings in Science Fiction."

To
"Jake" Earley
one SF man who is a good FS friend
Best Regards of
"Old Man UFO"
M.K. Jessup

3. M. K Jessup. The UFO Annual. New York: The Citadel Press, 1956. First edition. SIGNED. 375; 3pp. Octavo [22 cm] Red cloth-effect paper over boards, with fading to the spine and the surrounding area of the rear board. In a dust jacket, with mild rubbing and chipping to the extremities. Very good in a very good dust jacket. $100

The only complete collection of all the important sightings of flying saucers and other unidentified flying objects throughout the world in 1955.

Warmly inscribed by the editor to fellow UFO enthusiast George W. Earley on the front free endpaper. Earley's bookplate is on the front pastedown. Early was a U.S. engineer and editor. He was involved in science fiction fandom during the 1940s. He is the author of "Encounters with Aliens: UFOs and Alien Beings in Science Fiction."

4. Eberhart, George M. [Bibliography]. A Geo-Bibliography of Anomalies: Primary Access to Observations of UFOs, Ghosts, and Other Mysterious Phenomena. Westport, CT: Greenwood Press, 1980. First edition. ISBN: 0313213372. 1114pp. Thick octavo [24 cm] Red cloth over boards. Light soiling to the fore-edge of the text block, else very clean internally. Ex-libris UFO enthusiast George W. Earley, with his bookplate on the front pastedown. Early was a U.S. engineer and editor. He was involved in science fiction fandom during the 1940s. He is the author of "Encounters with Aliens: UFOs and Alien Beings in Science Fiction." Very good. $100

A comprehensive list of mysterious events, discoveries, people, and places in North America.

5. Walton, Travis. Fire in the Sky. New York: Marlowe & Company, 1996. First edition. ISBN: 1569248400. 370pp. Octavo [23.5 cm] Blue paper over boards. The front board is just a little bit warped, and the extremities are mildly bumped. In a dust jacket, with general light rubbing to the panels. Very good in a very good dust jacket. $200

From the dust jacket- "In Fire in the Sky Travis Walton relates in his own words the best documented account of alien abduction yet recorded, the story of his harrowing ordeal at the hands of silent captors and his return to a disbelieving world of hostile interrogators, exploitative press and self-styled 'debunkers.' Travis recounts the struggle to get a fair hearing, and confronts his detractors with a stinging rebuttal."

"All I ask is for an objective consideration of all the evidence. Anyone who won't do that isn't really entitled to an opinion."

—Travis Walton

6. Gordon Stein; Foreword by Carl Sagan. The Encyclopedia of the Paranormal. Amherst, NY: Prometheus Books, 1996. First edition. 859pp. Large octavo [24 cm] Navy blue cloth over boards. The publisher's advertisement for the book has been mounted to the front free endpaper with two small pieces of tape. The pages are clean and bright, and free of any markings. Very good +. $150

The first scientifically based encyclopedia to deal with the paranormal.

7. James M McCampbell. UFOLOGY: New Insights from Science and Common Sense. Belmont, CA: Jaymac Company, 1973. First edition. 153pp. Octavo [21 cm] Orange and black printed wraps. The text block is just barely beginning to crack at the front and rear. Very good. $100

"UFOLOGY is a pioneering attempt to come to grips with the physical nature of the UFO phenomenon. It points the way clearly to a scientific approach to the problem which can surely be applauded by physical scientists. the author combines logical and systematic marshalling of facts with provocative speculation to reveal an implied treasure chest of knowledge which could prove of monumental benefit to mankind." - Dr. J. Allen Hynek, Astronomer and former consultant to the Air Force.

Inscribed by the author, to fellow UFO enthusiast and collector George W. Earley on the verso of the front flyleaf. Earley's bookplate is on the front pastedown. Early was a U.S. engineer and editor. He was involved in science fiction fandom during the 1940s. He is the author of "Encounters with Aliens: UFOs and Alien Beings in Science Fiction."

*for George Earley with best personal regards -
Jim McCampbell*

9. John A. Keel. The Mothman Prophecies. New York: Saturday Review Press, 1975. First edition. ISBN: 0841503559. 269pp. Octavo [21.5 cm] 1/4 black cloth with black paper covered boards. The text block has dropped just a hair. In a dust jacket, with only very minor traces of soiling, a barely perceptible closed tear to the bottom edge of the front panel, and several faint scratches to the rear panel. Ex-libris UFO enthusiast George W. Earley, with his bookplate on the front pastedown. Early was a U.S. engineer and editor. He was involved in science fiction fandom during the 1940s. He is the author of "Encounters with Aliens: UFOs and Alien Beings in Science Fiction." Very good + in very good dust jacket. $500

Keel's report investigates the possibility that the collapse of the Silver Bridge at Point Pleasant, West Virginia, is connected to the eerie manifestations that preceded the disaster which killed 38 people. Keel spent a year at Point Pleasant investigating the numerous bizarre events which culminated in his report on the so-called Mothman, a primeval monster with blazing red eyes and batlike wings. His account has been translated into over thirteen languages and is widely viewed as a classic in the literature of the paranormal.

10. John A. Keel. UFOS: Operation Trojan Horse. New York: G. P. Putnam's Sons, 1970. First American edition. 320pp. Octavo [22 cm] Blue cloth over boards. Covers just a trifle cocked; spine ends marginally bumped. In a dust jacket, with light wear to the edges, and subtle toning to the rear panel. Very good + in very good dust jacket. $400

Humorously inscribed by the author, in the year of publication, to fellow UFO enthusiast George W. Earley on the verso of the front free endpaper. Earley's bookplate is on the front pastedown. Early was a U.S. engineer and editor. He was involved in science fiction fandom during the 1940s. He is the author of "Encounters with Aliens: UFOs and Alien Beings in Science Fiction."

Keel's highly successful work, "The Mothman Prophecies," has been translated into over thirteen languages and is widely viewed as a classic in the literature of the paranormal.

To George Earley—
Who got this book for nothing.
And it's worth it.
John A. Keel
Oct. 1970

11. Furneaux, Rupert. The Money Pit Mystery: The Costliest Treasure Hunt Ever [Oak Island] [Nova Scotia]. New York: Dodd, Mead & Company, 1972. First edition. ISBN: 0396068332. 158pp. Octavo [23 cm] Black cloth over boards. The boards are dampstained, however internally the books are very clean. In a dust jacket, with a small amount of dampstaining to the verso of the dust jacket, along the bottom edge of the front panel. The dust jacket still presents well. Good in a very good dust jacket. $250

From the Foreword-

"For more than one hundred and seventy years hosts of eager treasure hunters have tunnelled and dug in vain attempts to find the immense wealth that is believed to lie in the depths of the Money Pit, as it is appropriately named. More money has been poured into it than is likely to be taken from it."

12. Eberhart, George M. Mysterious Creatures: A Guide to Cryptozoology (2 volumes). Santa Barbara, CA: ABC-CLIO, Inc, 2002. First edition. ISBN: 1576072835. 722p. Quarto [26 cm] Shiny pictorial paper over boards. Other than some light rubbing to the surface of the boards and minor bumping to the top fore-edge corners of the boards, the books appear to be as new, and unread. Very good +. $100

The Mongolian Death Worm, The Giant Squid (Architeuthis), The Lochness Monster, Bigfoot, Sapo, all covered here!

From the Publisher- "They are the stuff of folklore, hoaxes, and genuine scientific breakthroughs. They are unknown animals, reported through eyewitness accounts or local legends, whose existence has not yet been verified by science. Mysterious Creatures strips away the myths and misidentifications to assess the truth about each animal. It describes over 1,100 unknown animals, as well as over 400 now-classified cryptids once thought extinct or pure fantasy."

Terms & Conditions: Advance reservation suggested. All items subject to prior sale. Please contact us to reserve an item (see contact information below). All items may be examined at our bookshop, which is open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday-Saturday, Sunday from 12 p.m. to 5 p.m., or by special arrangement (open hours subject to change). All items are guaranteed authentic and as described. Items may be returned for a full refund within ten days, with prior notification. Prices are in U.S. Dollars, payment with order. Regular customers may expect their usual terms. Institutions will be accommodated according to their needs. We accept, cash, check, wire transfer, PayPal, Visa, MasterCard, Discover, and American Express. Shipping charges are $5.00 for the first item, and $1.00 for each additional item. All other shipping, including expedited shipping and large items, will be billed at cost. Utah residents, please account for 7.75 % sales tax.

