

7/2/19

WWW.KENSANDERSBOOKS.COM

Western Americana

New & Price Reduced Items

1

James, George Wharton

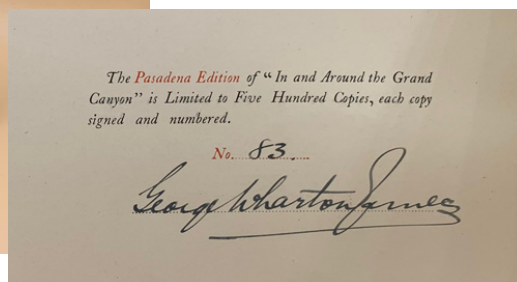

In & Around the Grand Canyon: The Grand Canyon of the Colorado River in Arizona

Boston: Little, Brown and Company, 1900. Pasadena Edition.

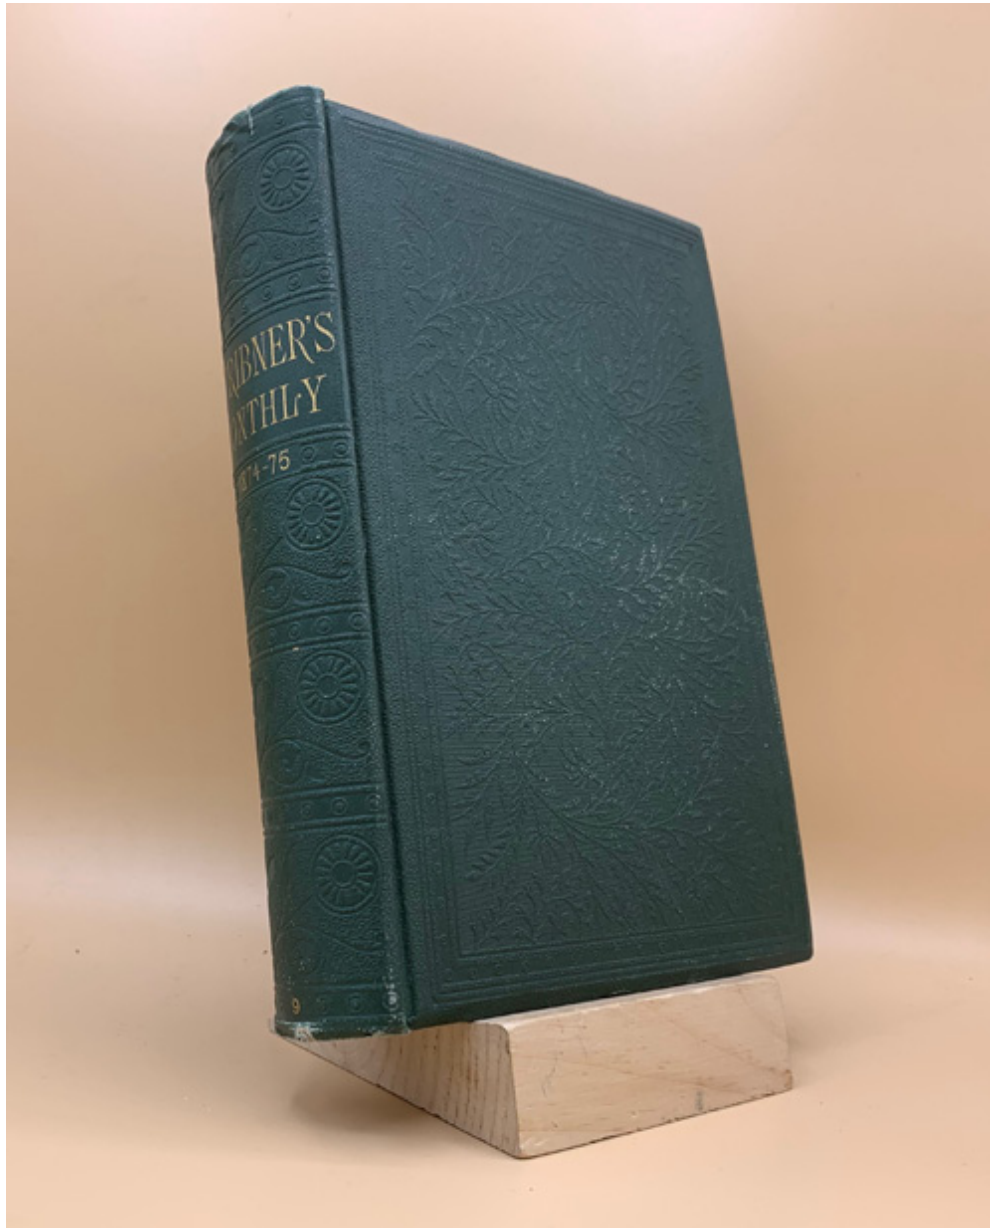

341pp. Quarto [26 cm] 3/4 brown moroccan over salmon cloth boards. Marbled endsheets and pastedowns. Volume has been rebacked in maroon buckram. Corners of boards rubbed. The 'Pasadena Edition' of this title was limited to 500 copies, this is copy 83.

Signed and numbered by the author on the limitation page. Illustrated with photographs and a fold out map.

"James spent a great deal of time at the Grand Canyon over a number of years and visited many out of the way spots. Because so much of the book records personal experiences it has special historical value and is in many respects one of the best of the Grand Canyon books." - Francis Farquhar. Farquhar 64

$100

Powell, J. W. (Contributor)

Scribner's Monthly from November 1874 to April 1875 (The Cañons of the Colorado)

New York: Scribner & Co., 1874-1875.

Illustrated.

Small quarto [24.5 cm] Green cloth covered boards with a gilt stamped title on the spine, and very elaborate and detailed blind stamped floral designs on the spine and covers. The edges of the covers are gently rubbed and bumped. There are a couple of short closed tears in the spine ends. The text block is cracked at p. 487. The pages are very mildly browned.

Includes Major J. W. Powell's, The Canons of the Colorado, beginning on p. 293. In 1869, ten men in four boats embarked on a journey that would cover almost 1,000 miles through uncharted canyons and change the west forever. Three months later only five of the original company plus the one-armed Civil War hero leader, John Wesley Powell, would return from the depths of the Grand Canyon at the mouth of the Virgin River. Major John Wesley Powell was 35 years old when led the expedition.

$150

3

Morgan, Dale (ed.)

Overland In 1846: Diaries and Letters of the California-Oregon Trail (two volume set)

Lincoln: University of Nebraska Press, Circa 1993.
Reprint.

825pp. Octavo [23.5 cm] Dark red cloth covered boards with copper stamped titles on the spines. The edges of the covers are gently bumped. The fore edge of the text block of volume 1 is very lightly soiled.

Includes the diaries of Virgil Pringle, Patrick Breen, James Mathers, and others.

$50

4

Pine, George W.

Beyond the West; Containing an Account of Two Years' Travel in That Other Half of Our Great Continent Far Beyond the Old West, On the Plains, In the Rocky Mountains, and Picturesque Parks of Colorado

Utica, NY: T. J. Griffiths, 1871.

Second edition.

483pp. Thick octavo [20.5 cm] Light purple cloth covered boards with gilt stamped titles and decorative patterns on the spine and covers. All edges gilt. Ex-library. The spine is very heavily faded. The covers are rubbed, and the edges of the covers are subtly faded and bumped. A previous owner's name has been stamped in gilt on the front cover. There are numerous small splits in the cloth at the ends of the spine. There is an abraded patch on the spine, where something has been rubbed out. The gilt on the bottom edge of the text block is slightly rubbed. This once belonged to a county historical library. The front endsheet has a discard label and a couple of ink stamps. The text block is cracked several times, however the book is still very sturdy. The pages are mildly browned. There are a library markings on the Preface page. Pp. 44-45 have large dark patches. One of the rear flyleaves has numerous small light stains.

Flake 6383. "The Mormon settlements." Expresses admiration for Mormon accomplishments but a disgust for their religion, p. 297-335 (Flake). Howes P381.

$50

Watts, John S.; Sylvester Mowry and Matthew Brayton
Indian Depredations in New Mexico / Memoir of the Proposed Territory of Arizona / Memorial and Affidavits Showing Outrages Perpetrated by the Apache Indians, in the Territory of Arizona, During the Years 1869 and 1870 / Peace with the Apaches of New Mexico and Arizona. Report of Vincent Colyer Member of Board of Indian Commissioners 1871 / The Indian Captive: A Narrative of the Adventures and Sufferings of Matthew Brayton, In His Thirty-four Years of Captivity Among the Indians of North-Western America (5 volumes in a slipcase)

Tucson: Territorial Press, 1964.

Reprints.

66; 30; 32; 58; 68pp. 4 octavos and 1 sextodecimo. Various colors of cloth and bonded leather covered boards, with gilt and silver stamped titles and simple decorative designs. In a dark red cloth covered slipcase. All volumes in very good condition. The edges of the spine and covers are gently rubbed. The gilt stamped title on the front cover of Indian Depredations in New Mexico has faded. The slipcase is in very good condition as well. The edges are ever so slightly rubbed and frayed.

$100

6

Williams, Henry T.

The Pacific tourist. Williams' illustrated trans-continental guide of travel, from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean. Containing full descriptions of railroad routes.

New York: H. T. Williams, [1878].

278pp. Octavo [23 cm] 3/4 dark calf over brown marbled boards. New endsheets and pastedowns. Minor nicking to extremities of the backstrip with a few small losses. No title page. Profusely illustrated with many landscapes by Thomas Moran. Includes many portraits of leading men of the west including one of the Mormon leaders of the day (page 151).

Three page index and seven pages of advertisements at the rear. Flake/Draper 6036a

$120

DATE	PURCHASER'S NAME	RESIDENCE	No. of COPIES	TITLE OF BOOKS
July	Miss M. Gray	Marysville	2	The Book
July	Miss M. Gray	Marysville	2

Hanaford, Phebe A.

Daughters of America; Or, Women of the Century
 Augusta, ME: True and Company, 1883.
 Salesman's Dummy.

Thin octavo [22 cm] Dark brown cloth covered boards with blind, black ink and gilt stamped title and decorative designs on the covers. With alternate sample binding on the front pastedown. The extremities are rubbed and gently bumped. There is a bend in the top left corner of the rear board that measures just under 2 inches long. The spine is faded, and the cloth at the spine ends is a little frayed. The boards are just a tiny bit bowed and barely perceptibly stained. The endsheets and flyleaves are lightly soiled and foxed. The frontispiece, title page, and tissue guard are heavily foxed. Brief pencil notations on the supplied notation pages at the rear.

$75

Bratt, John*Trails of Yesterday*

Lincoln: The University Publishing Company, 1921.
First edition.

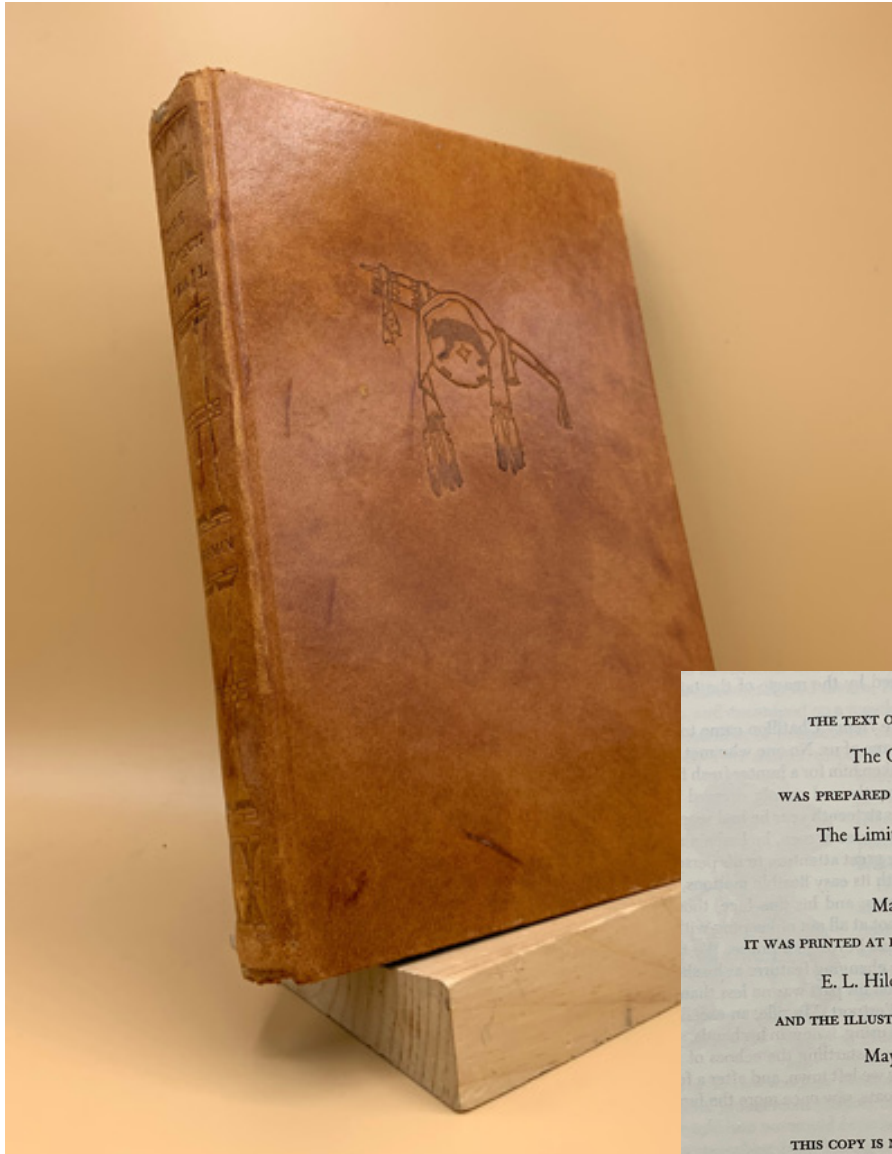

302pp. Large octavo [23.5 cm] Blue cloth covered boards with gilt stamped titles and decorative gilt and orange ink stamped tipi and wagon trail vignettes on the spine and front cover. Top edge gilt. The other edges are untrimmed. The extremities are mildly rubbed and bumped. There are a couple of stains at the head of the spine. The underlying boards are just beginning to peek through at the corners. Gift inscription on the front flyleaf. The wrinkled tissue guard at the frontispiece page is partially detached, and the illustration at p. 67 is just beginning to detach. The pages are mildly yellowed.

Inscribed by John Bratt's widow to a family member on the front flyleaf. Wright-Howes B-718. Describes the experiences of a cow-puncher in the Platte Valley.

$100

Compliments of Auntie Bratt,
To my nephew
John Bratt Burke.

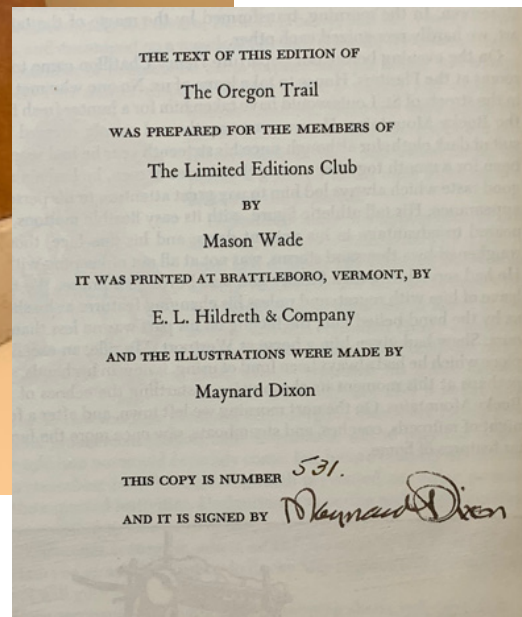

Parkman, Francis

The Oregon Trail

New York: The Limited Editions Club, 1943. Limited edition.

SIGNED. 297pp. Quarto [26 cm] Full brown leather with an embossed title on the spine, and blind stamped decorative designs on the spine and front cover. The text block edges have the publisher's blue stain. White, blue and brown illustrated endsheets. The extremities are mildly rubbed, and the underlying boards are peeking through the corners. There are losses from the leather at the ends of the spine. The losses measure approximately 1 and 1/4" wide by just under 1/2" deep. The leather boards are a little scratched, and there are two small gauges in the rear board. There is a previous owner's bookplate on the front pastedown.

Edited from Parkman's Notebooks by Mason Wade. With black and white illustrations from ink drawings and full-color plates from paintings by Maynard Dixon. Dixon's illustrations for The Oregon Trail were his last illustrations created for a book. This copy is number 531, and is signed by Maynard Dixon on the limitation page.

$300

Waters, Frank and Oswald White Bear Fredericks
Book of the Hopi

New York: The Viking Press, 1964. First edition.

SIGNED. 347pp. Quarto [25 cm] 1/4 yellow cloth with rust colored cloth covered boards. Illustrated endsheets. Publisher's orange top stain. With minor bumping and rubbing to the extremities, and a tiny shop label on the front free endpaper. In a price-clipped dust jacket, with light soiling and rubbing, several small closed tears in the edges. A couple of the tears have been backed with an adhered strip of paper. Tanner A15a.

Signed by Waters on the half title page.
 From the jacket- "This book reveals for the first time in written form the Hopi world-view of life, deeply religious in nature, the meaning of which the Hopis have kept secret for countless generations."

$200

BOOK OF THE HOPI

Frank Waters

There is no such thing as a little country.
 The greatness of a people is no more determined by their number than the greatness of a man is determined by his height.

—Victor Hugo

11

Kluckhohn, Clyde

To the Foot of the Rainbow: A Tale of Twenty-five Hundred Miles of Wandering on Horseback Through the Southwest Enchanted Land

New York: The Century Co., 1927. First printing.

276pp. Octavo [20.5 cm] Olive green cloth with lettering and pictorial stamping in purple and black. Map endpapers engraved by George Annand. Illustrated. Edgewear and irregular fading to jacket, narrow chipped tear to rear cover at foot, jacket spine and small portion of each cover reinforced at foot with clear tape; spine lightly bumped at top and foot, boards are crisp and unworn; foxing to textblock edges and occasionally throughout, else interior is clean and tight.

Story of Glen Canyon and Lake Powell National Recreation area, and an early “discovery” of Rainbow National Bridge.

$75

Bartlett, Richard A.

From Cody to the World: The First Seventy-Five Years of the Buffalo Bill Memorial Association

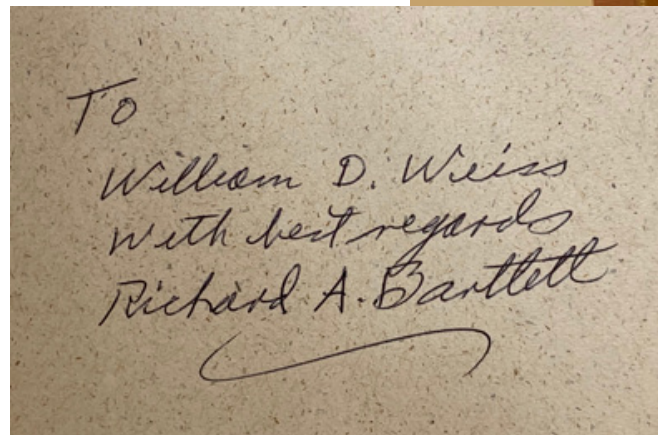

Cody, WY: The Buffalo Bill Historical Center, 1992.

Limited Edition.

SIGNED. 231pp. Quarto [27 cm] Full brown leather. In a matching cloth covered slipcase. The book is in near fine condition, and the slipcase is in very good condition with light soiling, and subtle edge wear.

Number 73 in a leatherbound edition limited to 250 copies. Designed by Richard Firmage in Salt Lake City, Utah. Inscribed by Richard A. Bartlett on the front free endpaper. The author writes, "To___, with best regards, Richard A. Bartlett."

$100

To
William D. Weiss with best regards
Richard A. Bartlett

[Colorado]Types of Colorado Beauty

Denver: Carson, Hurst & Harper, Circa 1892.

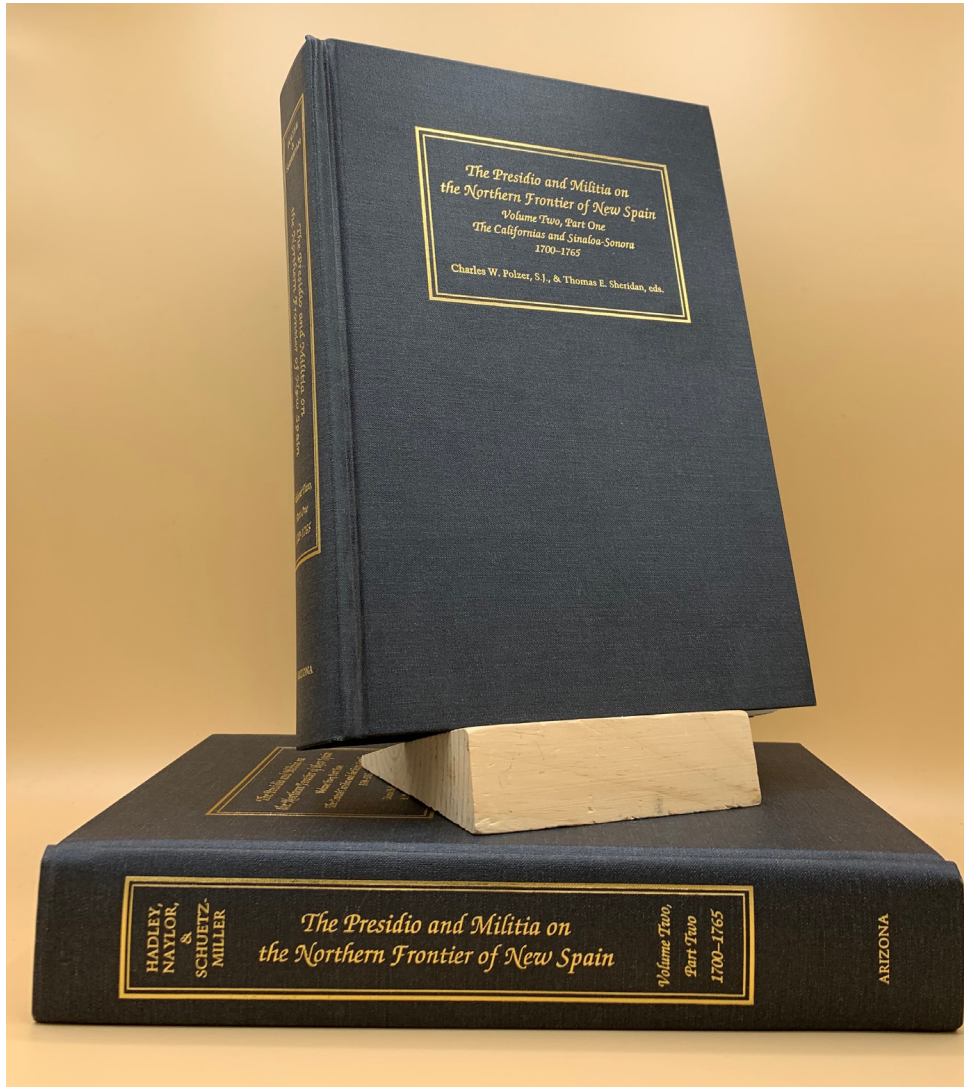

Original View Book.

Oblong quarto [25 cm x 32.5 cm] Illustrated wraps with a string tie binding. The wraps are subtly soiled and a bit creased. The edges of the wraps are chipped, with occasional small losses. There is a 3" thin, jagged tear at the foot of the spine along the fold and the surrounding are of the rear wrap. The pages have faint handling marks here and there, and sporadic shallow closed tears and chips in the margins.

A booklet published by the Denver printing establishment, Carson, Hurst & Harper. Includes photographic reproductions of views of Manitou and Pike's Peak Railway, Manitou Springs, Balanced Rock, Mount of the Holy Cross, Green Lake, and more.

$150

Polzer, Charles W.; Thomas E. Sheridan, Diana Hadley, et al

The Presidio and Militia on the Northern Frontier of New Spain: A Documentary History. Volume Two, Part One: The Californias and Sinaloa-Sonora, 1700-1765. Volume Two, Part Two: The Central Corridor and the Texas Corridor, 1700-1765 (2 volumes)

Tucson: The University of Arizona Press, 1997. First edition.

513; 556pp. Small quarto [26 cm] Black cloth stamped in gilt. Publisher's prospectus laid in.

A continuation, in two parts, of the documentary study of the institutional military history of the Spanish Empire in northern New Spain, containing letters, diaries, court records, military reports and interrogations from regions that are now California, Texas, New Mexico and Mexico.

$200

15

Alter, J. Cecil

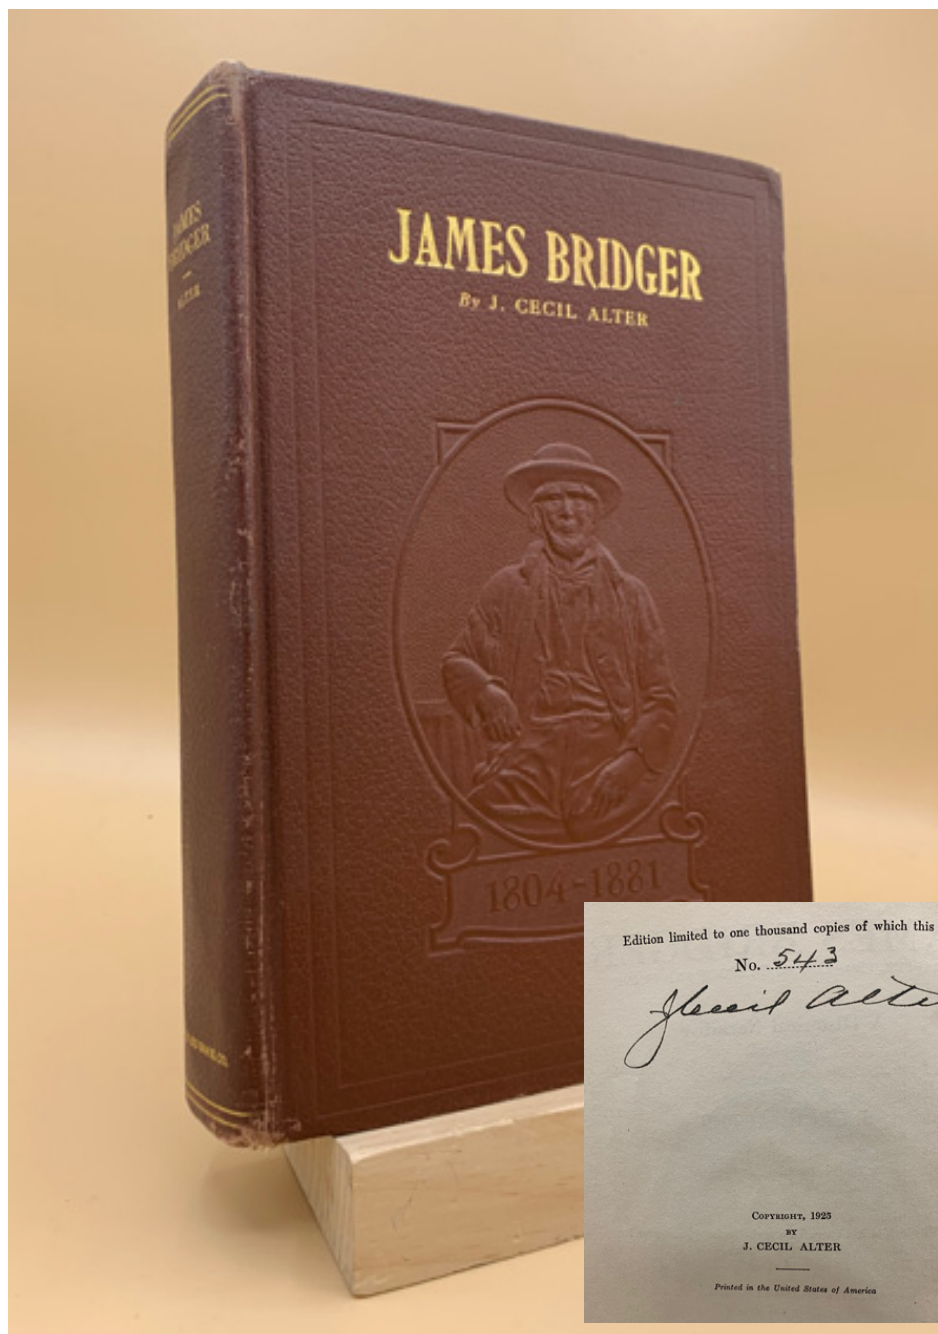

James Bridger: Trapper, Frontiersman, Scout and Guide--A Historical Narrative

Salt Lake City: Shepard Book Company, 1925. First edition.

SIGNED. 546pp. Octavo [24.5 cm] Red cloth binding with an embossed portrait of Jim Bridger on the front cover, and gilt stamped titles on the spine and front cover. Top edge gilt. The extremities are gently rubbed, and the spine ends and corners of the covers are slightly bumped and chipped. The hinges are weak and the pages are age toned.

With which is incorporated a verbatim copy, annotated of James Bridger A biographical Sketch by Major General Grenville Dodge. Edition limited to 1000 copies of which this is # 543. Signed by Alter on the limitation page.

$100

WWW.KENSANDERSBOOKS.COM

Terms & Conditions: Advance reservation suggested. All items subject to prior sale. Please contact us to reserve an item (see contact information below). All items may be examined at our bookshop, which is open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday-Saturday, Sunday from 12 p.m. to 5 p.m., or by special arrangement. All items are guaranteed authentic and as described. Items may be returned for a full refund within ten days, with prior notification. Prices are in U.S. Dollars, payment with order. Regular customers may expect their usual terms. Institutions will be accommodated according to their needs. We accept, cash, check, wire transfer, PayPal, Visa, MasterCard, Discover, and American Express. Shipping charges are $6.50 for the first item, and $1.00 for each additional item. All other shipping, including expedited shipping and large items, will be billed at cost. Utah residents, please account for 7.75% sales tax.

Ken Sanders Rare Books, ABAA
268 South 200 East - SLC, UT 84111
www.kensandersbooks.com
801.521.3819
books@kensandersbooks.com